

07.03.2023

The Professorship Circular Economy is looking for a

Student Assistant Digital Teaching (m/w/d)

General conditions

- Student at TUM Campus Straubing
- 10 hours per week
- Duration: 6 months
- Start: as soon as possible, dependent on the approval of project funding

Tasks

- Support with the preparation and revision of lecture notes of the modules “Circular Economy” and “Material Flow Analysis and Life Cycle Assessment”
- Support in the recording and creation of digital lecture notes

Skills and qualifications needed

- (Advanced) Master student preferred
- Confident use of MS Office software (especially PowerPoint)
- Previous knowledge on the topics of the lectures is appreciated
- Remote work partially possible, on-site presence required for recording
- High degree of responsibility, flexibility and ability to work in a team
- Quick perception
- Careful, conscientious and independent way of working
- High level of English proficiency

Application

We look forward to receiving your application documents (CV, cover letter, transcript of records). Please send them by e-mail to Vanessa Heinrich (vanessa.heinrich@tum.de) or Rosina Lohmeyer (rosina.lohmeyer@tum.de) by 31.03.2023 at the latest. You are welcome to contact these persons in advance if you have any questions.

Contact

Prof. Dr. Magnus Fröhling
Am Essigberg 3, 94315 Straubing
Phone: +49 9421 187 190 magnus.froehling@tum.de

Technische Universität München

Professur Circular Economy www.cec.cs.tum.de www.tum.de